We are a company of nine women and two men, formed in 1975, drawing on a wide range of performing, writing, musical, directing and technical skills. We are committed to exploring new ways of relating music to theatre as part of our policy to present the highest standard of work to the widest possible audience. We see ourselves as part of the growing and lively movement to improve the status of women. Our work explores the experience of women past and present, and we want to place that experience in the centre of the stage, instead of in the wings.

If you would like to know more about the company, and our plans for future tours, we would be happy to hear from you.
